CABINET COUNCIL ON NATURAL RESOURCES AND ENVIRONMENT

January 9, 1985, 10:00 a.m.

Roosevelt Room

MINUTES

Participants: The Vice President, Clark, Hodel, Block, Hill, Brown, Burnley, Thomas, Wright, Niskanen, Verstandig, Davis, Cicconi, Clarey, Griles, Calio, Risque, Rhodes, Franklin, Khedouri, Malone, Healey, Knapp, Smith, Trabandt.

Secretary Clark, Chairman Pro Tempore, convened the meeting. The Executive Secretary was directed to review all agency comments on material circulated concerning possible State of the Union initiatives, and to write suggested language reflecting these comments for inclusion into the State of the Union. Secretary Clark then reported that the Working Group on Critical and Strategic Minerals met last Friday and had scheduled further meetings to continue its work.

Deputy Secretary of Commerce Brown presented issues concerning the Coastal Zone Management Act (CZMA) reauthorization. After brief discussion, the Council proposed that appropriations for fiscal year 1985 grants for program administration be rescinded and appropriations for grants not be proposed for fiscal year 1986. The Council also agreed that the Administration should not seek any amendments to substantive provisions of the Coastal Zone Management Act, and should oppose congressionally-initiated amendments to the CZMA.

The Council also discussed Federal consistency for OCS lease sales, OCS revenue sharing, OCS lease sale moratoria and Section 8(g) of the OCS Lands Act litigation. The Council took the following action on these issues:

1. Federal Consistency for OCS Lease Sales: The Council proposed reaffirmation of the Administration's strong opposition to any legislation which would overturn the Supreme Court's decision which determined that OCS lease sales are not subject to the consistency requirements of the CZMA.

2. OCS Revenue Sharing: The Council recommended that the Administration continue its strong opposition to legislation providing for general revenue sharing from OCS receipts.
3. OCS Lease Sale Moratoria: The Council recommended that the Administration strongly oppose legislation to impose any moratoria on OCS lease sales.
4. Section 8(g) Litigation: The Council proposed reaffirmation of the Administration's position of opposition to legislation preempting authority of the Secretary of the Interior and the Attorney General to settle the Section 8(g) dispute.
